EOOS | Technology Forum 2022

THINKING AHEAD: THE TECHNOLOGY OF THE SCIENCE WE WILL NEED FOR THE OCEAN WE WANT

The EOOS Technology Forum will be hosting a forward looking workshop on the technologies required to fulfil the goals of the UN Decade for Ocean Science and Sustainable Development. The workshop will bring together science and industry to explore the technical challenges and requirements required to achieve the ultimate goal of a clean and healthy Ocean. The case study for the workshop will be marine pollution.
